Please be advised that all parents of children who participate in any Boro of Essex Fells and Essex Fells recreation program are expected to conduct themselves in a courteous and respectful manner. Obviously, parents should not use profanity, threats or insulting language. Parents should also not engage in any controversial conversations with the supervisor, instructor, teacher and or coach of any program. Any parent having any concern regarding a supervisor, instructor, teacher and or coach's performance should refrain from speaking with said person. Rather, the parent should contact the Essex Fells Recreation Department directly regarding that concern. The Recreation Director will take any necessary appropriate action.
